

Juana Majel Dixon is the Secretary of the National Congress of American Indians. She has held a Traditional Appointment as the Pauma Tribal Legislative Council Woman for the past 28 years and has been an adjunct faculty for 25 years with the American Indian Studies Department at Palomar College. She teaches Federal Indian Law and U.S. Policy as well as American History /American Indian History. Ms. Majel is also visiting Faculty at San Diego State University, Mesa College, Clairemont Graduate University. She has a PHD (ABD) Joint Doctorate in Policy and Education at Clairemont Graduate University and San Diego State University. Ms. Majel is an Advisory Council member of the National Congress of American Indians Policy Research Center and is a member of the Pauma Tribe.