

Crafting a Collective Vision for the Future of Indian Country

NCAI Annual Session: General Assembly Agenda<sup>1</sup>
November 2, 2005
Tulsa, Oklahoma

- 1:30 pm Rationale for activity (5 minutes)- Jackie Johnson, NCAI Policy Research Center Advisory Council Co-Chair
Presentation of creative tension model, including overview of current reality (e.g. social, economic, and political trends in Indian Country (10 minutes)- Jackie Johnson
Context for “visioning” exercise provided (5 minutes)- Dr. Eddie Brown, NCAI Policy Research Center Advisory Council Co-Chair
Instructions provided (10 minutes)- Jackie Johnson and Dr. Eddie Brown
- 2:00 pm Groups discuss first question (20 minutes)- Jackie Johnson to read question on screen (also on each table and in instructions)
- 2:20 pm Participants move to different tables to join new groups (5 minutes)- Dr. Eddie Brown to announce
- 2:25 pm Groups discuss primary themes from first question discussion (10 minutes)
- 2:35 pm Groups discuss second question (20 minutes)- Jackie Johnson to read question on screen (also on each table and in instructions)
- 2:55 pm Participants move to different tables to join new groups (5 minutes)- Dr. Eddie Brown to announce
- 3:00 pm Groups discuss primary themes from first and second questions discussion (15 minutes)
- 3:15 pm Groups discuss third question (20 minutes)- Jackie Johnson to read question on screen (also on each table and in instructions)
- 3:35 pm Debriefing (45 minutes)- Jackie Johnson and Dr. Eddie Brown to facilitate; advisory council members and staff assist with roving mikes; Diana Arsenian to capture via graphic recording; themes captured and projected on screen by note-taker; detailed notes also captured for report
- 4:20 pm Closing (5 minutes)- Jackie Johnson and Dr. Eddie Brown

---

<sup>1</sup> Accompanying facilitators’ PowerPoint presentation follows this agenda.